Membership Application

Thank you for your interest in The Historical Society of Charles County, Inc. The Society was established in 1961 to preserve, research and promote the heritage of Charles County, Maryland.

The Society is administered through its Officers and Board of Directors and holds regular membership meetings in January, May and October.

The official newsletter of the Historical Society is The Record, published three times a year.

Through a partnership with the College of Southern Maryland, the Society maintains and provides tours of Historic Friendship House, an 18th century Maryland Tidewater dwelling located on the La Plata campus.

The Historical Society, through the Friends of Rich Hill, is very active in interpreting and promoting the history, architecture and archaeology of Rich Hill, the 18th century home of Dr. Gustavus Brown and the site where John Wilkes Booth hid in the days following the assassination of Abraham Lincoln in 1865.
